PAY OF LEGISLATORS.

Low in Some States as Result of Constitutional Provisions.

New York and Pennsylvania pay members of the Legislature $1,500, and pay their Governors $10,000. In Maine legislators receive $150 a year, in Winconsin $500, in lowa $550, and in Illi-nois $1,000. The inadequacy of their compensation, which in no case exceeds $1,500, and in some States is adjusted on the per diem basis of $3, $4, $5 or $5, remains uncorrected for the reason that the figure is usually fixed by the State Constitution and can be increased only by formal amendments, and legislators are loath to adopt for submission a constitutional amendment increasing their own pay or that of their successors, $1,500, and in some States is adjusted their own pay or that of their successors.

No such obstacle exists, generally, with regard to the pay of Governors, within the last few yours the salary of the Governor in lowa has been raised from $3,000 to $5,000, in Kansas from $3,000 to $5,000, in North Carolina from $3,000 to $4,500, in North Carolina from $3,000 to $4,500, in North Carolina from $3,000 to $4,000, in South Dakota from $2,00 to $4,000, in South Dakota from $2,000 to $4,000, and in Utah from $2,000 to $4,000, and in Utah from $2,000 to $4,000, Ohlo $8,000, New Jersey $40,000, California $6,000, Illi-rois $6,000, Kentucky $6,500, and Indiana and the Southern States, except Goorgia, from $3,000 to $5,000, Perhaps the disparity is nowhere more clearly marked than in Connecticut, where the Governor receives $4,000, and the legislators $300 each.
